

242 W. Station Street - Contributing

Located at 242 W. Station Street is a gable front Folk dwelling which appears to have been built as a servant's quarters or guest house for the dwelling at 119 Dundee Avenue. The dwelling is one-story in height and was constructed ca. 1930. It has a continuous poured concrete foundation, a roof of asphalt shingles and an exterior of weatherboard siding. The main entrance on the south façade has an original, four-panel wood door. Windows are original, four-over-one-vertical-light double hung wood sash. At the eaves are exposed roof rafters and knee brace brackets.
